Bethlehem Lutheran Church e-Blaze for October 10, 2024

Office Hours: Tuesday - Friday 9:00am - 3:00pm

317-283-6559

This Sunday: is Faith Formation. In response to Fall Break and many families being out of town this Sunday, the elementary-age kids will meet as one group to learn about Mark 10: A Rich Man's Questions. Jenna Beauty will lead the class, and all kids should gather in the Sanctuary at 9am for Opening with Susan.

Middle School Faith Formation will be discussing the Fourth to Sixth Commandments. There will NOT be a Teen Class this week; our guest speaker has been rescheduled and we will resume class on October 27th.

Game Night last Friday night. Hope you can join us next time!

Ken McCune funeral: Though we take comfort in our certain hope and resurrection through Christ, we mourn the loss (September 28) of Ken McCune in our lives. Visitation will be after his funeral in The Fellowship Hall. Please join us to celebrate the gift of Ken among us, share a story, and enjoy a meal of Ken's favorite foods and beverages. Ken would not have wanted you to dust off a suit for him, and he loved autumn - so dress for the weather.

October 19, 2024

Funeral: 2pm Sanctuary

Visitation: 3-5pm Fellowship Hall

Help is need on both Friday afternoon (Oct 18) and Saturday (the 19th). Some of the food prep and centerpiece arranging will be done on Friday the 18th. The hall setup, remaining food prep, and cleanup - including flipping the hall into Brunch Sunday mode - will be done on 19th. Please look use this link to volunteer your help.

Adult Education Workshops: Candice is looking for suggestions and volunteers to lead a ONE TIME class/workshop/discussion during the 2nd Sunday of each month during the Faith Formation hour. Do you have an interesting hobby, life story, or favorite Bible chapter that you'd like to talk about? Is there a cause or topic that fascinates you and you want to know more about? Do you volunteer for an organization that would be willing to speak with us on a Sunday morning? We're looking for all ideas and suggestions, as well as individuals interested in leading ONCE! Please email, text, or chat with Candice.

Poinsettia Orders due Tuesday, Oct. 29th

Each year, we decorate the sanctuary with pretty poinsettias for the Christmas season. Orders for red or white poinsettias are due Tuesday, October 29th. Please mark payment "poinsettia": cash, check payable to Bethlehem Lutheran Church or Vanco.

Service Project: Looking forward to our fall service projects, please save the dates for the following events:

The Great Chicken Roundup on Nov. 3 approaches. That day, we hope to pack 60 banana boxes of groceries bought with your generous donations to give to needy families. That's 12 more than in recent years. We've collected 62 boxes, and now it's time to come up with the funding that makes the magic happen.

One box costs about $75. Why not "buy a box" or more? Make checks out to Bethlehem (noting Chicken Roundup in the memo line) or donate through Vanco, selecting Chicken Roundup/Helping Hams.

To volunteer to help prep on Nov. 2, morning and/or afternoon, or for more information, please contact Marty Benson, 317-696-9812. You can also sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board.

Young Adult in Global Mission: Madeline

The above link will take you to a donation site for YAGM or you can donate by check in the offering plate (Madeline's Mission) or Vanco (hyperlink or QR code). Madeline is so grateful for your support in any amount. Here is the latest update from Madeline in Mexico. Thank you!

The YIG Pantry is running dangerously low on food for the LGBTQ+ youth that we serve. Can you support Indy's LGBTQ+ Youth by ordering much-needed items from our Amazon Wishlist. Click the here to order for a list of their most-needed items. If you would like to drop donations, you may do so M=F 10am-3pm at 3733 North Meridian St., 46208 or in the bins at BLC outside the church office.

If you have any questions about Stephen Ministry training and caregiving, please contact Pastor Ken Ranos, Abbi Todd, 253.905.3148, or Shari Watts, 317.753.7323 for a confidential conversation.

Liturgical Shields

In 1945, Pastor Don Elder created two shields decorated with liturgical symbols--one for the Epiphany of Our Lord, and one for Reformation Sunday. He organized an Ecclesiastical Arts Group in 1949 and proposed decorating the entire ceiling of the sanctuary with similar shields to represent every Sunday, Principal Festival, and Lesser Festival celebrated in the church year at that time. Pastor Elder designed two series of shields (essentially the church year twice), 130 shields in total, and the EAG painted them, completing the project in 1952.

The shields don't always correspond to particular lectionary readings of the day, but they do draw on the themes for the seasons and incorporate symbols related to them. Each series runs from the top row to the bottom, from the front of the nave to the back.

These shields correspond to the Sundays and festival days of October this year in the South series:

13 October 2024: Time after Pentecost (Lectionary 28) — "Cross Flament", green

This cross with flame-like edges is a symbol of religious zeal.

18 October 2024: Luke, Evangelist — "St. Luke", red

A winged ox serves as the symbol of St. Luke because of his detailed account of Christ's sacrificial death in his gospel.

20 October 2024: Time after Pentecost (Lectionary 29) — "Cross Fitchee", green

Any cross with its lower arm drawn out to a point is "fitched". This form originated during the Crusades when the Crusaders carried small crosses with pointed ends to be thrust into the ground for daily devotions.

27 October 2024: Time after Pentecost (Lectionary 30) — "Cross of the Four Pheons", green

This heraldic cross is composed of four dart heads, points touching. The inner edges of the dart heads are serrated. It is said this cross reminds one of the fiery darts of the wicked and resistance through the power of the cross of Christ.

28 October 2024: Simon and Jude, Apostles — "St. Simon", red

The fish and book symbol of Simon refer to his great missionary work as a fisher of people through the gospel.

31 October 2024: Reformation Day — "The Luther Rose", red

Luther's personal seal has become the symbol of the Lutheran Church. A cross centered in a red heart surrounded by golden rays symbolizes the glory of Christ and faith in him. A white rose surrounds the heart and is a symbol of purity, peace, and joy. A blue field surrounds the golden ring of eternity to complete the seal.

--- Excerpts expand on the work of Sheryl D. Vanderstel, historian, in "Christianity and Community: A History of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 1923-1990".
